REPORTED-COOLER WEATHER

Compared with the two preceding days yesterday was comfortable. Not that it was not more than were prepared to feel chilly in a temperature of 92 degrees. This temperature of 92 degrees was reworded by the official thermometer in the office of the Bureau, on top of the Equitable Building, where it is always cooler than it is on the street, but official temperature and must be taken as standard. In the morning the mercury in the official 80 degrees at that hour it fell to 77 degrees at s o'clock. Then it began to climb up again, and at 10 o'clock the thermometer registered 87 degrees. the temperature went on rising, and reached the maximum at 4 o'clock, when the mercury stood at 92 de-The heat was not so much felt as it otherwise would have been on account of the comparative dry ness of the atmosphere. The average humidity for the day was 54 per cent. The record of Perry's ther mometer showed as follows:

HAIL AND WIND DO TERRIFIC DAMAGE. TEN THOUSAND ACRES OF CROPS LAID LOW-ALL THE WINDOWS IN A TOWN BROKEN.

Northfield, Minn., July 27 (Special).- The town of Farmington, a place of 1,500 inhabitants, twelve miles north of this city, was visited at an early hour this morning by a most terrific hall and wind storm. Hallstones as large as hickory nuts and hen's eggs fell, covering the ground six inches deep, tearing awnings and signs down and splitting the signs into match timber. Not a whole window is left in a dwelling, plate-glass suffered in proportion, there being 10,000 lights broken.

Trees were stripped of their foliage, many having even their branches form off, while the roots of small ontbuildings were all battered in.

The destruction of crops was absolute, corn, wheat and oats being cut down. The grain looks as if it had been chopped up with a hay-cutter. This is so over an area of fifteen miles square, covering parts of Rice, Dakota and Goodhue countles, and of a strip extending thirty miles west to the Mississippi River. The farmers are a blue set, as a fair crop was promised. An estimate places the acronge absolutely destroyed at 10,000 and the loss at $200,000.

Of my early life I do not care to talk. I came to this country seven years ago, and I have lived in all parts of the United States since then. I have lectured on Anarchy in many American cities. I have never been arrested, but I expect to be arrested at any minute. The police must do something, you know, to keep people talking. I know Alexander Berkman. He was in my rooms in New-York before he went to

She explained that she was an Amarchist and that she did not believe in marriage.

After asking her a few questions, which she refused to answer, the reporter was set upon by about ten Amarchists who struck him and threw him into the street.

A SHARP LOOKOUT FOR ANARCHISTS. SUSPICIOUS PEOPLE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY BY THE PITTSBURG POLICE-BERKMAN

og a strict lookout for Anarchists. Inspector Meelvy, who is acting superintendent of police, has chists are being watched day and night. When Inspector McKelvy was spoken to this morning he said:
"At first I was inclined to think Berkman was alone In this matter, but I am now satisfied that there was an organized movement against Frick, and Berkman of Realth and vice-president of the Education few days there will be some developments that will startle the community. There are more Anarchists here than people supposed, and they were getting ready to carry out some gigantic schemes. We were lucky in securing these people when we did, as an attempt would have been made on several of one prominent chilzens, and there is no telling where it would have ended."

At 2 o'clock this afternoon two Anarchists called at the police station to see Bauer. They were arrested and gave the names of Carl Finster and August Tirnopk, both of Allegheny. There was nothing found upon them.

The police are now satisfied that Berkman had made every arrangement to escape; that his intention was to go to Allegheny and remain in hiding with Knold until it was safe for him to get out of the country. Inspector Kelly, of the South Side, is keeping a look out for all the Anarchists on that sids of the river. There are several groups of them, and while he has not enough evidence to arrest them, they are being to arrest any one who attempts to leave Knold, when questioned by inspector McKelvy, ad mitted receiving letters from Most. The Anarchists do not approve of the attitude of the Homestead men toward their efforts to aid in the contest here. From a number of letters which Hugh O'Donnell has received in the last few days, it is evident that the New York America's expected that their proposition to kill every capitalist connected with their proposition to kill every capitalist connected with the transgles, and give the steel-workers a clear held, would have met with instant hallon of gratifuld here. I'the summary way in which three of the X Y Z' fraternity were "lived" out of Homestend a week ago, and then the denunciation by the Advisory Committee and Hugh O'Donnell of the shooting of H. C. Frick, have given much displeasure and much disappointment to the "Reds." As a result, Mr. O'Donnell has received a number of letters from New York and Chicago Anarchists who, under fictilious names, severely censure both him and the Homestead steel-workers for their callousness and ingratitude. One letter reods:

MR. DEPEW STARTS FOR EUROPE.

HE SAYS THAT HE IS GLAD TO BE ABLE TO GET A

REST-CHEERFUL ABOUT POLITICS. Chauncey M. Depew sailed for Europe yesterday norning on the White Star Line steamship Majestic, vacation. The Majestic had been advertised to sail at 8 o'clock, and twenty minutes before that hour Mr. Depew drove up to the gangway in a cab. and stepping out stood looking at the busy scene around him. Stateroom V on the upper deck had been eserved for him, and to it his baggage was taken. "I have really nothing to say," said Mr. Depew to Tribune reporter, "except that I am happy, happy o get a chance to rest. I have been very busy for a long time, and am tired out. This trip means rest for me, and, short as it will be, I know it will do me good. I shall go to London and then after a short stay in Paris, go to Homburg. The first week september will find me home again, refreshed and ready for work. I have read the account in to-day's Iribune of my trip. It covers the ground exactly and is a very good report. Mrs. Depew is not in poor health, but she did not feel inclined to take the trip, hurried as it must be. My boy also is befter off in the country where he can work off his superabundant energy, thun he would be on board steamer or in rallway carringes, and so he also stays at home "In regard to the political situation, I can only repeat what I have already said. The canvass so far eems to be progressing in a most satisfactory way. and in many respects is better than in any previous Presidential election I can remember. There is no reason that I can see why the Republican party should not carry the day in November, and I feel oure that it will. But for the next month I am going to rest and not think of politics or business. When I return they will both occupy my entire time

When I return they will both occupy my entire time and I will be better able to attend to them. I expect to meet many old friends abroad and renew many pleasant associations."

Just before going on board the steamer Mr. Depew sent a telegram to his wife manouncing his safe despuriers and ascending the gang-plank, was lost to view in the crowd of passengers that filled the decks of the Majestic. At twenty minutes to 9 yelock the vessel backed slowly from the pier and turned her bow down the river.

THE BROADWAY CHANGES MANAGERS.

MR. SANGER SELLS HIS STOCK-MR. FRENCH PRESIDENT OF THE COMPANY.

The negotiations and disputes about the stock the Broadway Theatre Company were all brought to an end yesterday. Frank W. Sanger, who has been president of the company and manager of the theatre ever since it opened, sold all his stock to Elliott Zborowski, who was already a member of the company, for $107,000. Mr. Zborowski sold half of this pany, for the third member of the com-pany and manager of the Grand Opera House and the Garden Theatre, for $53,000. Mr. sanger says that at the time Mr. French tried to restrain him by an injunction from seiling his shares to Mr. Zborowski he offered one-half of them to Mr. French's lawyer for $50,000, but the offer was refused. Mr. Sanger yesterday resigned the presidency of the Brondway Theatre Company, and Mr. French was elected to the place. Air, sanger, however, will con-tinue to receive his salary as president till August September 10, 1838, and was fifty-four years old.
